"...We are sure that the end of our stay is near. We plan to go to Dresden where we hope the institute will do well. The construction has already begun on the A property and everything is supposed to be ready for operation when we arrive so that we can start right away..."

50X1-HUM

"...The construction of the future ARDENNE Institute is progressing very quickly. The institute is being built on Plattenste 27/29 (Weisser Hirsch). Everything is going to be finished by the end of the year so that we can start to work right away. Some other parts of the institute will be built late on Leonhardstr. (where I hold a mortgage). I hope that I don't have to mention that all the plans I am writing about are not the way I would have made them under normal circumstances, but that I have no other choice. I have decided to stay at my old place of work because it is very difficult for me to find a new place at my age. I am [redacted] and know very well that younger people are preferred. I am not the master of my fate and have to make the best of my future under the circumstances which exist..."
